9. INFORMATION FROM DISTRICT AND COUNTY COUNCILLORS

Not present.

10. CORRESPONDENCE

Various which were all available to read. This included a form regarding the devolution of assets and services which the parish council filled out - there were concerns that there was not enough information to fill it out properly and this was put into the form. Clerk has asked for a comprehensive list of assets and services to be affected, but this has not been given. Also there was a letter regarding S106 monies that are being held by WDDC on behalf of Powerstock - we were asked hat projects etc this could be used for. it was agreed by all that the parish council would reply and say they would like the moey to go to the school for their amenity area.
